"OLD STARS."

I.

His mighty life was burned away
By Carolina's fiery sun;
The pestilence that walks by day
Smote him before his course seemed run.

II.

The Constellations of the sky,
The Pleiades, the Southern Cross,
Looked sadly down to see him die,
To see a nation weep his loss.

III.

"Send him to us," the stars might cry—
"You do not feel his worth below;
Your petty great men do not try
The measures of his mind to know.

IV.

"Send him to us. This is his place.
Not 'mid your puny jealousies;
You sacrificed him in your race
Of envies, strifes and policies.

V.

"His eye could pierce our vast expanse.
His ear could hear our morning songs,
His mind, amid our mystic dance,
Could follow all our myriad throngs.

VI.

"Send him to us! no martyr's soul,
No Hero slain in righteous wars,
No raptured saint could e'er control
A holier welcome from the stars."

VII.

Take him, ye stars! take him on high,
To your vast realms of boundless space.
But once he turned from you to try
His name on martial scrolls to trace.

VIII

That once was when his country's call
Said danger to her flag was nigh—
And then her banner's stars dimmed all
The radiant lights which gemmed the sky.

IX.

Take him, loved orbs! His country's life,
Freedom for all—for these he wars;
For these he welcomed bloody strife,
And followed in the wake of Mars!

ORPHEUS C. KERR ON THE ELECTIONS.

EDITOR T. T.: The late election in New York, my boy, has electrified everybody except our Honest Abe who still goes about smiling, like a long and amiable sexton, and continues to save our distracted country after the manner of an honest man. On Tuesday night, a high Democratic chap, of much watch-seal, who had just received a dispatch all about the election, went to see the Honest Abe, for the express purpose of telling him that the Democratic party had been born again, and was on the point of protesting against everything whatsoever, except the Constitution of our forefathers. He found the Honest Abe cracking some walnuts before the fire, my boy, and says he:

"The celebrated Democratic organization, of which I am Assistant Engineer, has carried the State of New York in a manner impossible to express, and will now proceed to demand of you a vigorous prosecution of that unnatural strife in which are involved our lives, our liberties, and the pursuit of happiness. We admire to see your harmless honesty," says the chap, blandly, "and we believe you to be a fresh egg; but we protest against the arbitrary arrest of men which is patriots, only conservatively Democratic; and we insist upon a vigorous prosecution of Constitutional hostilities against our misguided brothers who are now offering irregular opposition to the Government."

The Honest Abe cracked a walnut, and says he: "You say, neighbor, that the orginization still insists upon a vigorous prosecution of the war?"

The Democratic sliced a toothpick from the arm of the chair with his knife, and says he: "That is the present platform on which we are Epluribus unum."

"Well," says the Honest Abe, "I believe that you mean well; but am reminded of a little story.

"When I was practicing law out in Illinois," says the Honest Abe, twisting the bow of his black necktie around from under his left ear, "there was an old cock, with two sons, living near me, in a tumble-down old shanty. He lived there until half his roof blew off one windy night, and then he concluded to move to a new house, where the chimney didn't take up all the upper story. On the day when he moved he'd got most all his traps changed to the other residence, and had one of his sons to see if they were all got safely in-doors, when suddenly a shower commenced to come up. The old man and his other offspring, who had stayed to hurry him, were taking up a carpet from the floor at the time the first dose of thunder cracked, and the offspring says he, 'Hurry up, old crazy-bones, or we'll be ketched in the freshet before you get up this here rich fabric.' The stern parent heeded the admonition, and went ripping away the carpet around the edges of the room until he came near where the offspring was standing, and there it stuck. He pulled, but it wouldn't come, and he says' says he: "Pears to me that dod rotted tack must be a tenpenny nail—it holds on so.' You see the old screw was very blind without his specs," says the Honest Abe, buttoning his vest askew, "and he couldn't see just where the tack was. Another peal of thunder at this moment made the crascible offspring still madder, and he says, says he: 'You misabul old cripple, if you don't hurry up we'll be ketched, I tell you!' As he made this dutiful remark he went stamping to the window, and at the same moment the cantankerous tack came out, and the aged parent went over on his back with the carpet up to his chin. He got up and dusted, and says he: 'Well, now, that is cur'ous—how sudden it went.' Then he proceeded to rip away again until he came near the window, and there it stuck once more. The wild offspring saw him tugging again, and it made him so wrathy that he says, says he: 'Why in thunder didn't you take out the nails first, you crooked old sinner, you? Its enough to make me weep afresh for the old woman, to see how you—But he did not finish his observation; for, as he walked toward where the hammer lay, the tack came out, and the old 'un went to bed again under the carpet. Up sprang the sad parent, spitting rags, and he says, says he: 'Well now how, cur'ous—to think it should come so sudden!' Still on he went, until the carpet was all up from around the edges; but when he tried to drag it away on his shoulder, it was fast somewheres yet. R—r—rum—bum—boom! went the thunder; and says the infuriated offspring, says he: 'Well, I never did see such a blundering old dad as you be. We'll be ketched in the rain as sure as grasshoppers; and all because you didn't take my advice about the hammer in the first place.' The poor old 'un tugged, and pulled, and panted, and says he: 'Well, now, that is cur'ous, I swun to missy. There can't be no tacks way out in the middle of the floor here, can they?' To make sure, the old blind pate was going down on his knees to take a mouse-eye view, when all of a sudden he gave a start, and he says, says he: 'Why, 'pears to me, Sammy' you're standin' on the carpet yourself!' And so he was," says Honest Abe, smiling into the fire, and that was the reason why the carpet had stuck fast in so many places."

"Now," says the Honest Abe, poking the Democratic chap in the ribs with his knuckles: [illegible] ously in this war, tell them not to be standing on my carpet all the time. Otherwise, I must still keep tacking about."

The Democratic chap had been slowly rising from his chair as this small moral tale drew toward its exciting conclusion, and at the last word he fled the apartment with quivering watch-seal.

JOE PARSONS OF BALTIMORE.

Joe enlisted in the 1st Maryland regiment, and was plainly an "rough," originally. As we passed along the hall we first saw him crouched near an open window, lustily singing, "I'm a bold soldier boy;" and observing the broad bandage over his eyes, I said:

"What's your name, my good fellow?"

"Joe, sir," he answered, "Joe Parsons."

"And what is the matter with you?"

"Blind, sir; blind as a bat."

"In battle?"

"Yes; at Antietam. Both eyes shot out at one clip."

Poor Joe was in front, at Antietam Creek, and a Minie ball had passed directly though his eyes, across his face, destroying his sight forever. He was but twenty years old; but he was as happy as a lark.

"It is dreadful," I said.

"I'm very thankful I'm alive, sir. It might ha' been worse, yer see," he continued. And then he told us his story.

"I was hit," he said, "and it knocked me down. I lay there all night, and next day the fight was renewed. I could stand the pain, yer see, but the balls was flyin' all round, and I wanted to get away. I couldn't see nothing', though. So I waited, and listened; and at last I heard a feller groanin' beyond me "Hello!" says I. "Hellow yourself," says he. "Who be yer?" says I—"a rebel?" "You'er a Yankee," says he. "So I am," says I; "what's the matter with you?" "My leg's smashed," says he "Can't yer walk?" "No," "Can yer see?" "Yes," "Well," says I, "you'er a d—d rebel, but will you do me a little favor?" "I will," says he, ef I ken." Then I say, "Well, ole butternut, I can't see nothin.' My eyes is knocked out; but I ken walk. Come over yere. Let's git out o' this. You p'int the way, an' I'll tote yer off the field on my back." "Bully for you!" says he. And so we managed to git together. We shook hands on it. I took a wink outer his canteen, and he got on my shoulders. I did the walkin, for both an' he did the navigatin' An' ef he didn't make me carry him straight into a rebel colonel's tent, a mile away. I'm a liar. Hows'ever, the colonel came up an' says he, "Whar d'yer come from! who be yer?" I told him. He said I was done for, an' couldn't do no more shoot'n an' he sent me over to our lines. So, after three days, I came down here with the wounded boys, where we're doin' pretty well, all things considered.

"But you will never see the light again, my poor fellow," I suggested sympathetically.

"That's so" he answered glibly; 'but I can't help it, you notice. I did my doaty—got shot, pop in the eye—an' that's my misfort'n not my fault—as the old man said of the blind hoss. But—he continued, cheerly renewing his singular merriment. Poor, sightless, unlucky, but stout-hearted Joe Parsons!—Correspondence Boston Transcript.

"I'm a bold soldier boy."

APPLES FOR THE HOSPITALS.

[illegible] Washington, October 2d, 1862.]

THE inquiry being frequently made whether the Commission wishes to receive apples for the use of the wounded, it should immediately be published, as widely as possible, that dried apples cannot be sent to its depots in too large quantities. Town and village Relief Societies are requested to make arrangements for paring, cutting, and drying by their members, and such volunteer assistance as they can enlist, and to notify farmers that they will receive such good fruit as they may be disposed to offer and are unable themselves to properly prepare. Dried apples may be sent in barrels or boxes, or in strong bags marked "To be kept dry." Dried fruits of other kinds, and all good canned fruits, will be very acceptable.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

A PROCLAMATION.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

In the midst of the greatest calamity that has ever befallen our country, we should not be unmindful of the blessings which are showered upon us by the all-wise Disposer of events and destinies. Our adversities should not tempt us to forget either our dependence upon a common Father, or the multiplied mercies which accompany his chastenings. In the midst of war we are enjoying many of the blessings of peace. Our granaries are full to overflowing; many departments of industry bring their usual rewards to the toiling masses; neither pestilence nor famine assail us in our households, order reigns in our cities and towns; our common schools prosper; domestic quiet rewards obedience to the laws of man and God; and the people worship securely in their temples.

Thus blest, it is fit that we should render thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the universe. And I therefore appoint THURSDAY, the 27th day of November instant, to be observed in this State as a day of public Thanksgiving, Prayer and Praise.

On that day let us assemble in our places of worship, and in our family and social circles, and render to a beneficent Creator the adoration of greatful hearts: beseeching Him also that He will continue to us the unnumbered mercies of the present; and especially that He will restore to us the national unity, peace and prosperity of former years; that He will guide our rulers in the discharge of their duties; that He will reward patriotism in the soldier and in the citizen; that He will banish treason, corruption and imbecellity from high places; that He will preserve our constitution and save us from anarchy: that He will restore to us hostile States and estranged hearts; that He will prosper all one worthy enterprizes and labors; and that He will prompt those upon whom He has bestowed temporal blessings to bind up the wounds and cheer the hearts of such as faint beneath the heavy blows of adversity.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the State, at Providence, this seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of independence the eighty-seventh. WILLIAM SPRAGUE.

By His Excellency the Governor,
JOHN R. BARTLETT, Secretary of State.

STRANGE CASE OF DETENTION.

It is not a difficult matter for the persons whose business is officially to observe the actions of secession spies and Secessionists in general, to overstept in their zeal for the public service the line which lies between duty and excess of caution. The New York papers of saterday publish a correspondence between Mr. Samuel Barlow and Mr. Simeon Draper, the Provost Marshal General, by which it appears that Kennedy of the Police has fallen into this excess, in his espionage, apprehension, and detention of a lady from New Orleans, Mrs. Brinsdale, who came hither two months since from New Orleans, with a pass from Gen. Butler, to visit her uncles, one of whom resides at Washington, the other at Troy. It seems form this statement made by Mr. Barlow, her counsel, that Mr. Kennedy was her only accuser; that on her arrest he said to her friends that she would be immediately sent back to New Orleans: that thereafter she was detained in the Forty-fifth Street Station-House for more than a month; that at the end of that time her friends, being apprised of such continued detention, sought Mr. Kennedy, who said that her whole conduct on board ship indicated she was a spy, and ought to be hung, and so forth. Mrs. Brinsdale was finally relieved by the action of Mr. Draper, who, on the 20th ult., was first informed of her case, and that day wrote to Washington directing inquiry to be made of the Judge-Advocate-General, who immediately replied that he knew nothing of the matter. Mr. Draper then asked Mr. Kennedy by what authority he held Mrs. Brinsdale as prisoner, and was told that she was arrested by order of Col. Baker, the Provost-General of Washington; and Col. Baker, upon being telegraphed, as well as the Assistant Secretary of War, replied that she was arrested by one of Lt. Kennedy's officers without authority from the War Department. (The arrest had been made at Washington, and Mrs. Brinsdale conveyed to this city by the police officer.)—Thereupon, Mr. Draper called again on Mr. Kennedy; received an order for the lady's release; went with it to the Station-House, took her thence, and placed her in the hands of her friends.

Mr. Kennedy owes it to himself to give an explanation of this matter. We are aware that Mr. Barlow is noted for his Southern sympathies, but that is exterior to the case. Let us have all the facts. By what proof exactly was the young Mrs. Brinsdale accused? by what authority was she thrown into a station-house for over a month? Are the facts in Mr. Barlow's letter capable of being answered? They may bully, insult, imprison, shoot, hang Unionists in the South as they please by wholesale, but still we must have complete justice on our side where liberty, and not the Last, the liberty of woman is concerned.

Jeff. Davis Reviews Lee's Army.—The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday, has a dispatch from Baltimore, which says:—From the most reliable Secession source here, who have relatives in the South, I learn that Jeff. Davis reviewed General Lee's rebel army 80,000 strong, at Winchester, ten days ago. All were in new uniforms, and the officers were even dressed out with white kid gloves. The rebel leaders are confident that Lee's whole army has crossed to Gordonsville.

Local News.

LEFT BEHIND.—The Newport correspondent of the Providence Press learns that a Lieutenant and the interpreter belonging to the French Ship of War Massena were accidentally left behind, when she sailed from this port.

DONATIONS FOR PORTSMOUTH GROVE.—Owing to an oversight, we did not mention, as we should have done, at the close of Miss Wormeley's communication yesterday that Mayor Cranston would with pleasure receive articles for the Grove at his office in the City Hall and forward them promptly to the Hospital.

Winter Arrangement.—On and after Monday next the steamer Perry will make but one trip a day, leaving Newport at 8 A. M. and Providence at 2 P. M.

Portsmouth Grove Hospital.—The undersigned representing eight Christian denominations, heartily endorse the appeal recently made by the Chaplain of Portsmouth Grove Hospital for aid in erecting a building to be used as a place of public worship, and with accommodations for a library and reading room. A committee have visited the Hospital in order to see if it might not be possible to secure a place for these purposes in some of the buildings already erected. They were satisfied that this could not be done, and the question to be determined is simply this: Shall the soldiers during the coming inclement season have any place where their Chaplain can meet them for worship and instruction, or not? Shall this be any comfortable resort for them during the tedious days of the week: or must they either remain in the wards surrounded by all the associations of sickness, or be exposed to the severity of the weather, without any protection? The interest taken in this movement by those who are on the spot is shown by the fact, that the noble women who are serving their country, there as nurses to the sick, have subscribed six months of their salaries to secure the erection of a Chapel. A private appeal will be made to our citizens in behalf of this work, and meanwhile contributions may be sent to Mr. R. M. Larned, Agent of the Sanitary Commission, Providence, or to Dea. Benjamin Marsh, No. 110 Thames Street, Newport.—Many of our churches have as yet made no remittance in response to the appeal of a library at the Hospital; will they do some something for the Chapel? We earnestly commend this object to the consideration of the public:

The Great Stevens Battery,—A Revolution in Iron Shipbuilding Promised. The New York papers say that, within a few weeks past, there have been important experiments made in that city which will revolutionize in a great degree the

Mr Stevens, the inventor of the great floating battery, is the leading mind in the matter. One account of the discovery says:

"Some time since, being alive to the important bearing which the new ordinance discoveries and developments in Europe would have upon the future construction of armored vessels, he sent specially to the Eastern hemisphere a gentleman of large practical knowledge of such things, to investigate analytically the progress made by inventers of ships and guns. That gentleman is now in America, and has given a valuable account of his experience. The facts collected by him and the result of ordnance trial at home, have partially convinced Mr. Stevens that there is now no ironclad vessel in the world impervious to the shot that might be hurled against it. Urged by this conclusion, he endeavored to find out by the exercise of his creative faculties, if a ship could not be rendered really impregnable. The labor spent in trying has not been lost, and there is reason to believe that before long New York harbor will if the authorities wish it, be protected by a craft which can defy Warriors or La Gloires.

The experiments alluded to have been going on privately as publically would defeat the object of the inventer. The success which has attended them, however, will lead almost immediately to active measures of importance."

Mr. Chase's Financial Policy.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says the idea which has obtained currency that Mr. Chase intends to make war upon the banks, is altogether erroneous. Nothing could be further from the truth. He is in intimate relations with a large number of the banks, and these institutions are aiding the government in many ways. The writer adds:

"Mr. Chase is so manging the affairs of his department as to enable him to cease issuing paper currency at an early date, if this shall be possible. He is now getting clear of his remainders. When the seven-thirties now put up are sold, the only remaining original stock will be the five-twenty six per cents. This is to be made the great popular Government Loan. It is believed that Mr. Chase will not ask for authority to issue any more seven-thirties, or twenty-year six per cents. Under these circumstances the few millions of seven-thirties soon to be sold will command current rates.—It is all of this kind of stock the public will get from the Treasury Department.

The revenue of the government during 1863, it is expected, will not be far from $270,000,000—$200,000,000 from taxes, $60,000,000 from duties, and $10,000,000 from Postoffice revenues. It is said that Mr. Chase does not estimate the revenues from taxes higher than $150,000,000, but nearly all the financial men connected with the department put it at or above $200,000,000.

The national debt, with an income of $270,000,000, will not, one year from now, be one thousand millions, and some able financiers put the figures as low as eight hundred millions. It will not cost more to support an army of one million in 1863, than it did to support an army of six hundred thousand in 1862, for the reason that most of the muskets and clothing and munitions of war and vessels are provided."

Operations in Florida.—A dispatch, dated Augusta, Ga., Nov. 6th, states that private letters had been received at Savannah, in which it was reported that on the 31st of last month the Union man-of-war bombarded the woods on Tampa Bay, on the west side of the Florida Peninsula. This bay opens into the Gulf of Mexico, about 27 deg. 40 min. N. latitude, is about forty miles long, and is an excellent harbor. Towards the interior it divides into two branches, one of which is known as Little Tampa, and the other Hillsboro Bay. At the head of the bay is the village of Tampa, the Capital of Hillsboro county. Near the village is the site of Fort Brooke.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

In Wisconsin, 16 out of 20 Senators are Democrats. The Assembly is probably Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean are going to Australia, professionally, for three years. They will receive $50,000 besides perquisites.

There was a severe snow storm in Montreal the whole of Sunday last, and making good sleighing there.

The flow of the Pennsylvania oil wells is decreasing, the daily product of the whole region being estimated at scarcely 400 barrels.

Religious revivals are now in progress in several of the Methodist Episcopal Churches of Newark, N. J.

Peter Smith, implicated in the burning of the Alleghanian, on the Chesapeake Bay, was brought a prisoner to Fortress Monroe yesterday.

The city passenger railroad Presidents in Philadelphia intend to raise the fare December 1st to six cents.

The female Blondin has been removed on crutches from St. Bartholomew's Hospital, England, a cripple for life, in consequence of her fall from the ropes.

Owen Lovejoy Re-elected.—The Chicago Tribune gives the complte vote in Owen Lovejoy's District in that State. Mr. Lovejoy is reelected by 260 majority.

The deep black which our war ships have been painted has proved to be a very prominent mark to shoot at, in consequence of which a change has been made to a greyish drab.

Gen. Bragg informs the Confederate Government that but 1,500 Kentuckians joined him; that the people hesitated to take Confederate money; and that he had to pay three prices for his supplies.

Gen. Hooker, for the present, will be under the direction of General Burnside. The report concerning General Wadsworth, is likely correct; he will have command of a brigade, and take part in the present Virginia campaign.

Mrs. Lincoln has left Boston, after being lionized in that city for four days. She was visited by Governor Andrew, Senators Sumner and Wilson, Professor Agassiz and others, and then received the compliment of a serenade.

Owing to a deficiency in the expected supply of postal currency the Treasury Department will not be able to perfect arrangements for furnishing railroad companies with the much needed small change until next week,

It is rumored that Fort Darling has been mailclad with iron, and strengthened by a heavy base wall of solid masonry. A new Fort has been thrown up near the Point of Shoals intended for two guns.

James Madison Porter, Secretary of War under President Tyler, died Tuesday morning, 11th inst., at Easton, Pennsylvania, aged sixty-nine. He was the son of General Andrew Porter, of the revolutionary war, and was born in 1793.

The Journal of Commerce says the order of Gen. Halleck, ordering all officers of the army to join their respective commands within twenty-four hours under penalty of dismissal from the service, caused a general stampede of military gentleman towards Washington, hurrying back to the army of the Potomac.

The assertions that no changes of importance are probable in our foreign relations, and the similar assertion that the British Minister, who was expected in Washington yesterday, brings out no new instructions from his Government, are not made upon adequate authority. The converse of both these assertions is believed in well informed circles to be true.

The President's Letter to Gen. McClellan.—The Washington correspondent of the New York

"It is understood that the President has furnished a copy of his letter to Gen. McClellan, and on which McClellan failed to act, to Gen. Burnside, for the consideration and guidance of that officer. The President has also read this letter to various parties, and it will no doubt be given to the public. It is a document which will elevate Mr Lincoln in the esteem of all thoughtful men, and will show conclusively that he has not been content with the nominal position of Commander-in-Chief, but has studied the great principles underlying the conduct of military affairs."

The Disaster to a Portion of the 1st. R. I. Cavalry.—We have received a letter from our correspondent F. D., giving an account of the attack on the 1st. R. I. Cavalry, October 31, at Mountville, about five miles above Aldie, on the Snicker's Gap turnpike," by a heavy force of rebel Cavalry. The loss was as follows: Capt. L. D. Gove was killed, and 21 of his Troop (I) captured; Lieut. J. A Andrews, (since escaped,) and 17 of his Troop (M) were captured; 12 men of Troop L, and 1 man of Troop K, were captured; one of the men was slightly wounded. A rebel Captain was killed, and several rebel soldiers wounded.—Prov. Press.

Success to be the Test at Last.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y Times says:

The President, in conversation last week with a prominent gentleman from his own State said, that in future success should be the test of qualification in our Generals, and that failure, after vain trial, should at once be followed by removal, until the right man should be found to occupy the right places. That this plainest principle of practicable wisdom should so long have been neglected in the military appointments of the Government has excited the wonder of all since the beginning of the war, and a faithful adherence to it hereafter, will be the surest guaranty of a speedy and successful termination of a struggle which has become nearly as disgraceful to the Government as its origin was to the rebels.

Death of Lieut Monro H. Gladding,—Private advices received to-day announce the melancholy news of the death of Lieut. Munro H. Gladding of the 5th Regiment R. I Volunteers, which event occurred on the 4th instant, at Beaufort Hospital North Carolina.

He was a son of the late Mr. George W. Gladding of this city; was a volunteer for the first three moths service of the war; returned to Providence and resumed his business occupation, but, feeling that his country needed his services, he dissolved his mercantile connection, and receiving an appointment under General Burnside he again entered upon his military duties, which he most faithfully discharged. His illness was of some four weeks duration, and its sad result is a bitter affliction to his bereaved mother and other relatives, and to a large circle of acquaintance.—Prov. Press.

Tax on Silver Plate.—We have been informed that in some instances parties weighing their plate have exempted a portion of their silver, upon the mere report they have seen in some public print; and in other cases jewelers, it is said, have represented to parties for whom they have weighed silver, what should be, and what should not be taxed. All this has been done, no doubt, without the intention or wish to evade the law, but the proper mode of procedure is to have every article of plate weighed, whether it be in your house or locked up in the vault of some bank, and make return of the whole weight above forty ounces to the Assistant Assessor of the district where the parties residence may be, the Assessor, being the only proper person to decide whether any part thereof is exempt or not.—Saturday Eve. Gazette.

We are informed that in one instance an amended return has been made to one of the Assessors of between three and four hundred ounces which the party thought he had a right to exempt.

Married.

In this city, 13th inst., by Rev. S. Adlam, Mr. John R. Austin and Miss Harriet N., youngest daughter of Mr. William Knull, all of this city.

DYSPEPSIA & FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Psychycology, &c. This remarkable remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and so cures or aromatic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative repulsion of its atomical electro-magnetical principles, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name. Address Dr. O. PHELPS BROWN, No. 19 Grand street, Jersey City, N. J.

FOR HORSES

Is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

TWO AND A HALF O'CLOCK.

FROM THE GRAND ARMIES.

PLANS OF THE REBELS TO OUT-GENERAL BURNSIDE.

REINFORCEMENT OF LEE'S ARMY.

New York, Nov. 14.

The Washington Star of yesterday afternoon, says we have information from the front representing that a considerable portion of Jackson's force is making its way over the North Western Virginia Turnpike, in the direction of Chamberlain, Md. While inclined to doubt the accuracy of the news, so far at least as to the extent of the rebel force marching in that direction, if it is true, Jackson designs seeking to diverge as large a Union force as he can form the serious work now before Burnside.

The ruse is an old trick of his which will hardly win this time we apprehend. The rebel authorities are just now bending every nerve to strengthen their army between the Rappahannock and the Rapidan.

Floyd's entire force has been called from Western Virginia, and if not already arrived at Gordonsville, will be gathered there in a few days.—Bragg's movements, too, have been shrouded in mystery for more than a week past, and rebel citizens of Virginia secretly believe that he is also rapidly moving up by rail to join Lee's army.

But for the recent stay of the advance of our army, all these rebel efforts to strengthen their forces to meet the shock of battle soon to come off,—if the advance be not abandoned altogether, would have been too late, for by to-day an engagement that would have placed the throat of Richmond and Gordonsville in Gen. McClellan's grasp would probably have been fought.

HOLLY SPRINGS OCCUPIED.

Lt Grange, Nov. 13th.

(Special to Missouri Democrat.)

Gen. Grant's advance occupied Holly Springs to-day, and our pickets are ten miles north of that place. A second dispatch says Col. Lee of the 7th Iowa Cavalry had driven in the rebel pickets at Lamkins Mills on the Ia Hatchie river, four miles south of Holly Springs, and captured 100 prisoners among whom were several officers and a captain of Van Dorn's staff.

A brisk skirmish is now going on at Lamkins Mills and the rebels are retiring. Gen Grant is determined to drive the rebels to the wall and to pin them there.

A CAVALRY FIGHT—REBEL MOVEMENTS.

Burkesville Ky. 18.

Sixteen hundred rebel cavalry have arrived here. They say 5000 more are on their way to reinforce them.

At Nashville it was reported that a fight took place near Lebanon on Tuesday between Kennetts and Walfords cavalry on the federal side and Morgans men on the other. Seven guerrillas were killed and 128 captured; also a number of horses.—Our cavalry are in pursuit.

Chenthams rebels division is at Tullahoma.

Part of Braggs army is reported at Knoxville.

The rebels are moving their sick to Chattanooga. There are large confederate stores at Mumfreesboro.

FROM FORT MONROE.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. CORCORAN AND STAFF.

Fortress Monroe, 12th.

Sylvester Buell, formerly of Albany N. Y., was found drowned in the moat yesterday. He has been for some days in the Guard House for desertion and attempted to make his escape by jumping through the embrasure into the moat and being unable to land was drowned.

General Corcoran and staff arrived at Fortress Monroe this morning.

Major Gen. Dix went to Suffolk to-day to review the troops at that place.

FROM REBELDOM.

THE RECOGNITION GHOST.

The Petersburg Express, Nov. 10th, has the following: The ghost of recognition of the South ern Confederacy by France and England, after having been solemnly voked for the tenth time has again been dismissed to the shades below where we hope it will remain for the balance of the War.

We are tired of the freakish reappearance of this phantom and wish never to see it again paraded before the public eye.

REBEL ACCOUNT OF FEDERAL SUCCESSES.

We have information that the enemy are in possession of Williamston and Hamilton in Martin County and a large Federal Army is marching on Tarsboro. Our small forces engaged them at Williamston, but the enemy's overwhelming numbers forced our men to fall back. Our loss was 12. The enemys is 100. Much damage was done to the buildings by shelling in Williamston and Hamilton. The cars have been ordered to Tarboro to move Government stores.

STIRRING NEWS EXPECTED.

On Tuesday night all our available forces around Kinston received marching orders to go as near Newbern as they could get, consequently we expect stirring news soon from that direction. We believe Weldon is the point the enemy wishes to reach,

PRICE OF NEGROES.

T. J. L. Turnbull sold in Warrenton N. C. 6 negroes on Wednesday last at the following prices.

One negro man 54 years old 1,075 dollars.
One negro woman 50 years old $800.
One negro woman 34 year old $2500.
One negro girl 20 years old $3500.
One negro woman 18 years and infant $1400.
One negro girl 16 years old $1250.

These negroes were all likely house servants.

ORDERED TO REPORT:

(Washington Herald).—Brig. Gen. Grover has been ordered to report to Gen. Banks and has gone to New York.

A SPEECH FROM MC'CLELLAN.

Trenton 13th.

A delegation from Newark, New Brunswick and other places waited on Gen. McClellan today.—They invited him to visit their cities but received no satisfactory answer.

Crowds of people assembled in State St. in front of Gen. McClellans quarters at 9 o'clock.

The Trenton Cornet band was present playing a few national airs.

Gen. McClellan appeared at the door of the hotel where he was addressed on the part of the citizens by Andrew Dutcher Esq.

Gen. McClellan replied as follows:

"My friends—for I feel that you are all my friends I stand before you not as a maker of speeches, not as a politician but as a soldier. I came among you to seek quiet and repose and from the moment I came amongst you I have received nothing but kindness, and although I came among you a stranger, I am well acquainted with your history. From the moment I took command your gallant sons were with me from the seige of Yorktown to the battle of Antietam. I was with them and witnessed their bravery. ("Hero cheers were loud and long,") and that of the ever faithful ever true Taylor and the interpid dashing Kearney.

One word more—while the army is fighting: you as citizens should see that the war is prosecuted for the preservation of the union and constitution, for your nationality and rights as citizens.

It was almost impossible for the General to proceed, in consequence of the dense crowd and immense and prolonged cheers. After he had retired he was again called out and simply thanked the crowd from the window and bade them good night.

ARMY MOVEMENTS.

Baltimore, Nov. 13.

A correspondent of the American from Harpers Ferry to-night says several parties have reached here from Martinsburg from whom we have apparently reliable information of the condition of affairs in the army of the Potomac, up to Cherry Run where Gen. Rolly is in command. The rebels have apparently entirely abandoned the line of the Potomac. None of their troops have been seen or heard from for nearly a week. Our cavalry are actively scouting in the vicinity of Martinsburg and Washington, passing through them.

It was reported there that Jackson had returned to Winchester with a considerable force and was to move from that point Westward. The opinion appears to be that if Jackson is in the valley at all it is for the purpose of moving towards Staunton, Gen. Cox has marched toward that point with a Federal force which excites apprehension among the rebels. A week ago Gen. Cox was known to be in Highland county within forty miles of Staunton.

BURNSIDE SHIELD A RHODE ISLAND MAN.

The Tribune's dispatch says an officer in one of the Rhode Island Batteries, while at Fitz John Porter's Headquarters, Wednesday, remarked "that after this we may as well give up and acknowledge the independence of the rebels." Half an hour later he was surprised by a summons to Burnside's Headquarters. He admitted he made the remark, but stated he did so under excitement, and said more than he meant. "You have now an opportunity to retract it," said Burnside, "but if I were not personally acquainted with your antecedents and your loyalty, you would have been instantly dismissed. Neither you nor any other officer, high or low, can utter such sentiments and remain in this army." The officer made a full retraction and apology.

POSTSCRIPT.

INDEMNITY DEMANDED BY FRANCE, AND AN APOLOGY FROM SPAIN.

Our Government will acceed to any Disgrace.

BUTLER'S REMOVAL PROBABLE.

(Washington Times.)

The French Government has demanded full and immediate indemnity for all injuries inflicted on French citizens under Butler. Our State Department in denouncing Butlers act says, there will be no difficulty, and merely informs the French Minister, in advance, that it is ready to back down to any extent from Butler's acts.

The Herald's dispatches intimate Butler's removal probable.

The Times also says that the Spanish Minister has demanded an apology for burning the steamer Blanche by one of Farraguts fleet, in Spanish waters.

Advance of the Grand Army

Rebels Enforcing the Death Penalty.

(Washington Tribune.)

Our front is now beyond the Rappahannock, 15 miles south of Warrenton.

The rebels under Jackson are reported in strong force near our advance.

The Lynchburgh Republican states that the number of rebel desertions is startling. The rebel government is enforcing the death penalty in all cases.

FURTHER FROM THE ADVANCE.

(Washington Herald.) Our advanced corps still occupy Fayetteville, four miles from Rappahannock Station, and was to-day exchanging worn out battery horses for fresh ones, just arrived from Washington. Skirmishing is almost constant with the enemy's rear, but the results are insignificant.

GLORIOUS NEWS FROM WESTERN VIRGINIA.

A letter dated Morefield, Hardy Co., Va., Nov. 10, to Gov. Pierpont, says:

"I left New Creek Saturday morning, 8th inst., and after a continuous march of 24 hours, for a distance of 60 miles, reached Imboden's Camp on the South Fork, 19 miles south of this place, at six and a half o'clock yesterday morning. We attacked him at once and routed him completely, killing and wounding many of the enemy, also capturing his camp, 50 prisoners, a quantity of arms, 350 hogs, a large number of horses, cattle, wagons, &c.

The rebel infantry were routed and entirely dispirited, being driven to the mountains. Their cavalry were, unfortunately for us, away on an expedition, or our success would have been complete. We burned their camp and returned to this place this evening.

Our attack was so unexpected and impetuous that our loss is trifling, three or four men slightly and one severely wounded. None killed.

B. F. Kelley, Brigadier General.

ARMY MATTERS.

Another Tribune despatch says that a negro who came into our lines at Rappahannock Station, reports a small outpost of the enemy in a ravine opposite the bridge at Brandy Station. Five miles further south is a large force from Longstreet's army.

The country is so completely desolated by war that starvation threatens the inhabitants.

Two resignations, in consequence of a change of commanders, is reported in Gen. Doubleday's Division, and were indorsed with a recommendation that they be honorably dismissed from the service.

RECEPTION TO BANKS.

New York, Nov. 14.

A meeting of merchants and citizens takes place at the Astor House to-morrow, to make arrangements for a reception to Major General Banks and Mrs. Banks.

A Portion of McClellan's Staff under Arrest.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 14.

Lieut. Cols. Colburn and Duane, of Gen. McClellan's Staff, were sent to Washington this morning, under arrest. It is said the order was received by an officer of the army in this city, and the persons named repaired at once to Washington to place themselves at the disposal of the authorities. Rumors prevail that other members of the Staff will be put under arrest. The charges are unknown.

A large number of people are paying their respects to McClellan today. The hotel is thronged. A deputation from Philadelphia is expected.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

AMERICAN AFFAIRS &c.

Halifax, 14.

The Europa arrived at 11, 30 last night. The Persia reached Queenstown on the 31st.

European political news unimportant.

The papers have little to say on American affairs.

The Times credits the federals formidably constructed Navy, but questions its effectiveness for regular Naval Warfare.

A iron confederate privateer was recently spoken off Sable Island.

(Note.—Very likely the Alabama, which a recent letter said was seen by the City of Washington on an outward trip.—Eds.)

Affairs in Greece are quiet.

The weekly cotton markets were received per Nova Scotian.

On Friday the market for flour was quiet, and wheat dull one and two pence lower. Corn easier, Provisions dull but generally steady. Bacon lower. Lard a shilling higher. Consols closed on Friday at 93¼ and 93¾ for money. American Securities are very dull. Rail ways firm: Ill. Centrals 44¼ c 43¾ discount. Eries 37½ c 38¼. U. S. Fives 63 c 65. The Europa has 72 passengers and 1,009 pounds in specie.

FOREIGN MAILES.

The Russian Government have discovered a central revolutionary committee at Warsaw.

The elections in Greece will be held on the 10th of November. It is said an understanding has been arrived at between France and England, and Russia, by which Grecian affairs are deprived of their importance for Europe.

The British gunboats had seized all the Mandarine, war junks, and Custom House Officials at Tankan, Chéin, and released all the teas detained there for payment of the increased transit duty.

President Lopez, of Paraguay, is dead—his son in law provisionally fills his place.

The gunboat Tuscarora arrived at Lisbon on the 26th from Azore.

Sales of cotton Saturday—seven thousand bales. Advanced 2d for American. Breadstuffs steady. Provisions dull. The London Stock Exchange is closed in consequence of the usual half yearly balances accounts of the banks. No quotation of consols.

FROM WASHINGTON

Washington 14th.

The Attorney General has decided on a case in point, that Rock Island in the Mississippi having been reserved for Military purposes by the executive is not subject to preemption or sale under the general land laws of the U. S. and that the alleged relinquishment of the reservation in 48 was without authority.

ARRIVED.

New York, Nov. 14.

THE WAR IN THE WEST.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT PARTICULARS.

Cincinnati, 13.

Flour a shade firmer. Sales at 5.40. Red wheat dull, held at 2 cts. higher at the close. White dull at 1 ¼. Whiskey steady at 34 ¼. Provisions quiet and no sales. Hogs held firmer at 225 a 460, packers not buying freely.

LATEST FROM THE WEST.

New York, 14th.

A special Nashville dispatch of the 13th to the Tribune, says: Reports concur that the enemy are accumulating a heavy force at Murfreesboro. The military authorities have no faith that these demonstrations mean more than a cover to convey their stealings of subsistance across the Tennessee river. The rebels will retire when our army moves up.

You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiva, either in capsules or mixtures, for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your breath and clothes are filled with its vile odor; throw away the disgusting mixtures, and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

☞ One bottle, which lasts a week, will often effect a permanent cure.—Price $2.00.

Dr. Mattison's Anti-Syphilitic Syrup,

For Constitutional Syphilis.

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its use every form of constitutional syphilitic taint is speedily cured, and in a few weeks the subtle poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

☞ It was this remedy that cured in a few weeks a gentleman from the South, then stopping at Newport, and for which he presented Dr. M. with $250 besides his bill, after having been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for FIVE YEARS.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will often effect a perfect cure. Price, $10; half size, $5.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator,

For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Gloomy Apprehensions, Despondency and Melancholy, which may end in Loss of Reason.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from venereal excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect antidote for this obstinate and distressing class of maladies ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the untold sufferings of hundreds who have never seen the Inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Price—Quart bottle, which lasts a month, $10; half size, $6.

☞ These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and as now prepared they are known to be the very best for their respective purposes, and I am therefore induced to make them public for the mutual benefit of myself and the sick, who otherwise could never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the price will be refunded.

☞ Prepared and sold ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, near No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

☞ It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone; and that, too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, without inquiry, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter what his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine cases out of ten are knaves, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally; giving full information, with the most undoubted references and testimonials without which no advertising physician or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

☞ Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write our address plainly, and direct to DR. MATTISON, as above. d16-1y is

ECONOMAY IS WEALTH!

CURE YOUR COUGH FOR ONE DIME.

The best and cheapest Household Remedy in the world.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S

GREAT COUGH REMEDY.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Curative Balsam is warranted if used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient,—warming, searching and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALSAM has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and others.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!!—Do not be persuaded to purchase at 4s. to $1, which do not contain the virtues of a Dime Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 10 cts., and in large bottles at 20 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

☞Sold by all Druggists and Store-keepers at 10 cts. and in larger bottles at 20 cts.

A CHALLENGE AND A REWARD.

$500 REWARD.

I beg leave to inform my friends and the community, that from recent arrangements made by me, I NOW offer the above reward in good faith, which shall be paid in cash to any chemist or physician, of good and responsible standing in the State, who, on due analysis and satisfactory evidence, can find anything in the BRANDIES, WINES, GINS, &c., &c.. NOW for sale by me as pure, other than is found in all PURE, GENUINE and UNADULTERATED ARTICLES.

Knowing, from experience, that our citizens in general labor under the impression, with good cause, that pure liquors cannot be had, I, after much pains, studious investigation, and from the reliable source with whom I NOW contract for my supplies in these articles, do stake my reputation as a man, my integrity as a merchant, that if the liquors NOW sold by me as pure "are not so," then none can be had from the vineyards in France, or from any part of the world. As a proof of my sincerity, I challenge chemical contradiction, and invite all to come and test for themselves, when they will learn that NOW, "it never before," pure liquors can be purchased in Newport, by bottle or measure, for medicinal or family purposes, and as cheap as in any other place in these United States.

WM. ALDERSON, Newport, R. I.

N. B.—The main inducement for all to give me a call is, that my figure for the genuine article is rather less, than more, than is NOW charged for the handsome labeled bottled compounds so extensively sold all over country. Meh 30 1y

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS,

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of the Patent Office.

EDMOND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN MAGAFFT.

During eight months the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
